| Field(s) ofAction: | * Presence and Visibility  |
| Objectives:            | * Career promotion* Create a Network   |
| Target Group(s):       | PhD students, PhD candidates and research assistantsPostdocs and mid-career scientific personnelFemale postgraduates   |
| Description:           | The programme supports female postgraduates to follow and achieve their goals.There are four options which can be chosen individually:* Interdisciplinary further education: This is an advanced training based on fourmodules which women have to complete in one year. They receive a certificateafter they have completed the training successfully. Women have the possibilityto build a network and to continue working in their teams.* Interdisciplinary exchange: In regular meetings women can listen to/holdpresentations, discuss current issues, or introduce their own projects for thepromotion.* Interdisciplinary network: There is a mailing-list informing members aboutcurrent events or can contact other postgraduates.* Individual counselling: This is a personal and confidential conversation to talkabout individual conditions and to reflect on them, e.g. how do I work towards apromotion? |
