Description:	Since 2008, the Equal Opportunity Officer at the University of Düsseldorf has been publishing a brochure entitled "Meine Heine-Frau". It contains profiles of female researchers, students, or colleagues who have made an outstanding contribution in terms of their work or social engagement. As well as honouring individuals, the profiles of female professors, doctors, staff members, and students represent many women in the various professional groups. Therefore, the portrayed women serve as role models for other women at the university. The Equal Opportunity Officer invites nominations from staff and students at HHU every two years.
